

BACHELOR OF COMMERCE (C.A.)

On the successful completion of B.Com. (CA) programme, the students will

PSO1: Gain Practical exposure in facing challenges of modern business and service organizations that use modern computerized systems including accounting packages.

PSO2: Learn the basic understanding and grounding on the fundamentals of Commerce.

PSO3: Be well verse with making desk top publishing and multimedia using flash.

PSO4: Understand the basic concepts and techniques of C programming.

PSO5: Understand and use the concepts of DBMS using data models, keys, SQL and PL/SQL.

PSO6: Specialize with ORACLE tables, query and DDL and DML commands.

PSO7: Develop VB application for small business problems.

PSO8: Know the fundamentals of JAVA programming and Applets.

PSO9: Gain core knowledge and skill exposure for continuing higher studies on Commerce and computer related areas of their choice like Accounting, Corporate Secretary, Entrepreneurship, Computer managed systems.

MASTER OF COMMERCE (CA)

On the successful completion of M.Com. (CA) programme, the students will

PSO1: Be employable in corporate sector.

PSO2: Facilitate employability skills.

PSO3: Gain Exposure to various technique and pursue research programmes.

PSO4: Equip themselves to meet the challenges of emerging technology and network infrastructure.

PSO5: Equip themselves and are ready for employment in functional areas like Accounting, Taxation, Banking, Insurance and Corporate law.