

BACHELOR OF COMMERCE

On the successful completion of B.Com. programme, the students will

PSO1: Gain knowledge and skill for the effective performance of various commercial activities including Accounting, Auditing, Office management, Company management, Income tax and the like.

PSO2: Learn the basic understanding on the fundamentals of Commerce.

PSO3: Specialize practical knowledge in facing challenges of modern business and service organizations that use modern computerized systems including accounting packages.

PSO4: Gain fundamental knowledge to undergo professional courses on Commerce related disciplines like Accounts, Audit, Cost Accounts, Corporate Secretary, Law, Banking, Insurance, Financial Markets, Income Tax and so on.

PSO5: Acquire core knowledge and skill exposure for continuing higher studies on Commerce and other related novel areas of their choice like Accounting, Corporate Secretary, Entrepreneurship, Computer managed system and so on.

MASTER OF COMMERCE

On the successful completion of M.Com. programme, the students will

PSO1: Have advanced knowledge and skill on functional areas of commerce like business management, financial management, investment management, channel management and logistics and so on.

PSO2: Acquire practical knowledge on marketing of goods and services, maintenance of accounts of corporate and other organizations, cost accounts maintenance, project management, undertaking social science researches and overall business management.

PSO3: Have higher knowledge on specialized areas of commerce like direct and indirect taxes, management information system, organizational behavior, accounting standards corporate reporting and banking technology.

PSO4: Gain expertise in recent commercial disciplines like Financial markets and institutions, retail management, operations research, channel management and e-business.

PSO5: Acquire skill and knowledge on teaching and research on various subjects of commerce at higher education institutions.

MASTER OF PHILOSOPHY IN COMMERCE

On the successful completion of M.Phil. programme, the students will

PSO1: Have professional understanding of teaching commerce.

PSO2: Acquire extensive and thorough knowledge on research methodology in social science research.

PSO3: Acquire advanced knowledge and skills on making critical decision making relating to financial management.

PSO4: Gain comprehensive understanding and performance of activities involved in marketing.

PSO5: Have the ability to teach commerce in higher education institution.